

EXPANSION SHOCK

Solomon R. Guggenheim

Pentagram · 2024 · Container

Four houses. New York, Venice, Bilbao, Abu Dhabi. No unified identity.

A governance problem more than a design one: one brand holding authority across Latin and Arabic, from blue-chip retrospectives to local commissions.

One system, two registers.

A fixed geometric wordmark carries institutional authority.

A family of free-form, morphing G-marks carries
each location's energy.

Authority at the institution;
freedom at the exhibition.

Hold the institution's authority in one fixed wordmark, and each location's freedom in a changing one.

The brand stops forcing a single expression on four different houses.

The wordmark never bends. The G-marks never stop moving. The tension between them is the whole system.

Brand is behavior, not image.

Nine landmark cultural rebrands, read by what forced the decision. Not by how they look. By what they do.
