

MILESTONE RECKONING

Brooklyn Museum

Other Means • 2024 • Container

A bicentennial with a trap: honor 200 years without the homage becoming a pose.

Signal a contemporary institution while carrying two centuries of history, and keep the signal from reading as costume.

The building supplied the device.

Two punctuation dots that frame names across the facade became structural: they bookend the logo, serve as bullets, anchor signage.

Ligatures merge the double-C of Brooklyn and the M-U of Museum into a dense, proprietary object.

The most durable brand elements are pulled from the institution's own material history.

The more specific, the harder to copy.

The dots were already on the facade. The rebrand noticed them, and made them load-bearing.

Brand is behavior, not image.

Nine landmark cultural rebrands, read by what forced the decision. Not by how they look. By what they do.
